Notice to the Applicant / Employee

This employer is considering offering you a job contingent upon a clear background check. The employer requires you to consent to the comprehensive background check. Your eligibility to work in this position is dependent upon whether you have a disqualifying offense in your background.

You must authorize a release of information relevant to your background, including your criminal history records and any substantiation for child or adult abuse. This information will be sent to the Maine Background Check Center and other Federal or State agencies as needed to investigate your background.

The comprehensive background check requires you to provide personally identifiable information including your name and date of birth. You may voluntarily provide additional identifying information, including physical description information in order to speed up your criminal history records check and avoid a false match of criminal records.

The comprehensive background check includes, without limitation, searches of Federal and State criminal history repositories, public registries and databases relevant to health or childcare services, and state maintained databases for abuse and neglect substantiated findings. Your name will also be checked for a match on the National and Maine sex offender registries. If you have a professional or occupational license, the licensing authority will be contacted to investigate your licensing status. Searches may not be limited to the State of Maine, and may include every jurisdiction where you have lived.

If you have a disqualifying offense as defined in 22 M.R.S.A. Ch. 1691 in your background, you will not be eligible to work in this position, or for this or any employer subject to 22 M.R.S.A. Ch. 1691 unless the disqualifying offense meets the criteria for a waiver pursuant to 22 M.R.S.A. Ch. 1691.

 Voluntary Consent for Disclosure of Personal Description

Attention Applicants / Employees

This employer is required to conduct a comprehensive background check, including a name-based criminal history records check, as a condition for employing you in this job. Your employer must enter your name and date of birth to conduct a name-based criminal record check. It is common for more than one person to have the same or similar names and dates of birth or similar personal descriptions. Helping your employer enter accurate and detailed information about you and your physical description helps decrease the chance that a false criminal record match occurs. You may voluntarily allow this employer to enter other personal descriptors such as height, weight, eye color, hair color, gender, race, and place of birth. Your employer will enter this information into the Maine Background Check Center (MBCC) for comparison to State Bureau of Identification (SBI) criminal records.

If the SBI system does not find a matching record for the name and date of birth submitted a "NO MATCH WAS FOUND" report will be sent to the MBCC. The MBCC will inform your employer that you do not have a criminal record.

If the SBI system finds a matching record for your name and date of birth, the MBCC will receive criminal history record information from SBI that includes personal descriptors to help make a positive identification. Without your personal descriptors, a name and date of birth check could result in a "false positive," meaning that your name matches one or more possible criminal records, but the record is not yours. Therefore, the MBCC cannot eliminate you as the person listed in the name-matched records. Your employer, the MBCC, and the SBI would require more time and further information in order to determine whether you have or do not have a criminal record that will disqualify you from working in this job.
